STARS IN THEIR FRIES:
The Mr Chips father and son team Metin Tekin and Sedat Gurbuz

Chip off the block

THE votes have been counted and Luton on Sunday can now reveal the chippy you voted top of the shops!

Mr Chips in Seymour Avenue, Luton, has been voted the best takeaway in town by our readers for the second year running. Metin Tekin and Sedat Gurbuz, were thrilled to hear they had managed to defend their crown.

Sedat said: "We're delighted we've won it again, making it two years in a row."

"We're a family run business and we've only been here three years so we're happy to have won the award twice already. "Hopefully we can make it three in a row next year!"

In close second place came Mr and Mrs Bahia of the Black Swan Chippy. While Mr Fish in Lyneham Road bagged third place.

In at fourth place was Peri Peri Express in Leagrave Road and completing our high five, was the team at The Wigmore in Wigmore Lane.

Congratulations to staff at all the chippies that received nominations and thank you to everyone who took part in the vote.

The competition was held in conjunction with National Chip Shop Week.

To see a full gallery of all our finalists serving up their dish of the day, head to luton-dunstable.co.uk

The competition will return next year to see whether Mr Chips can hold onto his title.

'High' pupils hospitalised

Six students rushed to A&E after taking 'legal highs' together before starting the school day

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE headteacher of a school where six students fell ill after taking a 'legal high' has declined to comment on reports that another student was suspended last year for bringing in cannabis.

John Burridge, head of Lealands High School, said he is 'not prepared to discuss individual students' and added that the school had a 'robust drugs and substance abuse policy'.

On Thursday six students, in different year groups at Lealands, were rushed to the Luton & Dunstable Hospital in three ambulances after taking the 'legal highs' before school started.

They were said to be suffering from a 'variety of symptoms' but were later discharged and it is believed they will recover fully.

A Lealands student told Luton on Sunday that one of the affected students had collapsed and another kept 'laughing and giggling' during a police interview.

He added that last year another student had been suspended for a month after he was discovered with cannabis.

He said: "They took the drugs and came to school and then they all started getting sick."

"One of them collapsed and then they called the police, and another was being interviewed by police and he kept laughing and giggling."

"They all went to hospital afterwards."

Luton on Sunday also spoke to a parent with a child at the school who said the incident was 'horrible' and 'frightening'.

The mother, who does not wish to be named, said when staff informed parents about the ill students she initially suspected food poisoning and was worried for her daughter, who attended the school's breakfast club that day.

She said: "It was horrible because my daughter attends breakfast club, but then I thought 'it can't be food poisoning'."

"I did think it could be drug or alcohol related, and it's just frightening. I did not know anything about what had happened until I got to the school."

"But we did get a letter from the school and they acted upon it."

In the letter sent out to parents on Thursday afternoon, Mr Burridge reassured parents and said no other students had been affected by Thursday's incident.

He also said: "We know this may cause some concern for various reasons, but we would ask everyone to stay calm and avoid unnecessary speculation." In a statement regarding the student suspended last year, he said: "I am not prepared to discuss individual students."

"The school has a robust drugs and substance abuse policy, as all schools do, which we follow."

Detective Sergeant Sandra Evans, from Bedfordshire Police, said: "We'd like to take this opportunity to remind people that just because a substance is marketed as being 'legal', it does not mean it is safe."

"It's not always clear what ingredients such substances are made up of, or what effect it is likely to have on you."

Lib Dems slam Labour for council tax increase

BY NICK SMITH
 nick.smith@lutonsunday.co.uk

A 1.5 PER CENT increase to council tax was approved by Luton Borough Council at its annual budget meeting on Monday evening.

The increase will boost the budget by £857,000 for the coming year but was met with considerable opposition from Liberal Democrat leader David Franks.

Cllr Franks said: "This increase was just not necessary."

"The council was entitled to a government grant of £719k if it froze council tax and it's only raising just over £130k more, while costing taxpayers £857k."

He also attacked the Labour-led council for its policy on older persons' bus pass usage, saying:

"Another council tax increase, still no bus pass use before 9.30am and a charge of £35 to empty your garden waste bin."

"It's another monstrous smash and grab raid on hard pressed Luton families."

Cllr Franks and the Liberal Democrats proposed an amendment to the budget increase, which would have seen no increase made to council tax, along with the freeze grant being accepted.

The amendment also proposed unlimited bus pass use and the waste bin charge to be scrapped.

On the opposition to the Labour-led council's budget, Cllr Mohammed Ashraf, portfolio holder for finance, said: "If we'd accepted the grant we would have had to make a number of cuts."

"The decisions we took were in the best interests of the people."

He added: "The amendment proposed by Cllr Franks was utter nonsense."

"This is a time where we need to do better for Luton, regardless of political allegiance."

"There was nothing constructive or concrete in what was proposed, it was very disappointing after the work we had put into the budget."

"If he had suggested something constructive, we would have listened and maybe taken on board what he had to say."

Museum gets £200k funding for development

MORE than £200,000 has been given to Wardown Park Museum by the government for its refurbishment project.

The fund, awarded by the Department for Culture Media and Sport (DCMS) in conjunction with the Wolfson Foundation, will help renovate and improve the galleries and public spaces.

It will also allow more access for disabled visitors and a 'better collection interpretation'.

Karen Perkins, the museum's director, said they would be applying for funding from the Heritage Lottery Fund for the second phase of its project, which will cost £2.9 million.

She said: "We are pleased that we received this funding. DCMS and Wolfson have always been very supportive and they also supported the development of our award winning Stockwood Discovery Centre."

"It will help us transform the museum to a home of Lutonian heritage that we can be proud of."

TRANSFORMATION: It is hoped the money will allow for improvements

newsbriefsTEEN CHARGED WITH ATTACKING OAP

A 15-YEAR-OLD boy has been charged in connection with an attack on a 78-year-old man in Wardown Park in Luton last year.

The victim had been walking his dog, near the lake, on December 6 when he was assaulted. He was taken to hospital in a serious condition. He has since left hospital but is still suffering from the effects of the attack and recovering slowly.

The boy was charged with causing grievous bodily harm without intent last Friday and has been bailed to appear at Luton Youth Court on March 10.

Anyone with information relating to this incident can contact DS Hamm, in confidence, at Bedfordshire Police on 101, or text information to 07786 200011.

DUO JAILED FOR SHOPKEEPER THEFT

TWO robbers who rammed a stolen car into a Luton shopkeeper's vehicle to snatch his takings have been jailed for a total of 15 years.

Victor Tull, 38, from London, who was the driver, got seven years and Daniel Rankin, 34, from Spalding, who leapt from the passenger seat to snatch the money, got eight years.

Shortly after 11pm on September 4 last year, shopkeeper Ponniah Vijayarajah locked up his shop in Rockley Road, Luton, and got in his car with the day's takings of £1,175. Less than a mile away at the junction of Whipperley Ring and Ross Close, his VW Polo was rammed by the defendants who were in a stolen silver Vauxhall Astra.

Both were convicted of aggravated vehicle taking and robbery but cleared of possessing an imitation firearm with intent.

STOLEN PHONE STASHED IN SHOE

A STUDENT put his foot well and truly in it when he stole an iPhone from Luton's University of Bedfordshire campus and hid it in his shoe.

Harold Penn-Timothy, 25, of Hastings Street, Luton, was confronted by the victim and his friends, as well as an off duty policeman, in Fitzroy Court on November 10 last year and caught when someone rang the number and the phone could be heard ringing from his footwear.

At Luton Crown Court this week he pleaded guilty to theft.

He was sentenced to a 12 month community order and must perform 80 hours of unpaid work.

Exterminate! Who goes there?

THE Doctor looks to be keeping an eye over our town as signs have cropped up banning his arch enemies, The Daleks, from areas of Luton.

A number have appeared over the last few months, with two more appearing on the busway earlier this week.

Luton and Dunstable Cycling Forum member Adam Bell said:

"The one in the photo appeared on Tuesday and is on the barrier at the start of the busway next to New Bedford Road in Luton, although there's also one on the barrier by Chaul End Road."

Have you seen any more around the town? Do you know who has put them up, or why?

Even good shops come in small packages...

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

GOOD customer service is the secret to success for a store which has been named one of the top 20 best small shops in the country, its manager has said.

Nisa Local, in Toddington, was one of two stores 'highly recommended' in the Best Small Shops Competition 2015 won by a Yorkshire deli.

Manager Gary Bilbrough put the award down to the 'great customer service' offered by all 10 employees working at the branch.

Mr Bilbrough and his staff went to the House of Commons for a ceremony in which they received their award and met with MP Simon Danczuk, the chairman of the All-Party Parliamentary Small Shops Group.

After the event, he said: "We just got that little bit further."

"You can buy a tin of beans anywhere but we also support the local community."

"We do things like maths lessons for some pupils who are struggling with it and we make it real for them."

"We give them challenges without using a calculator and that makes them realise why they need maths in the real life."

"We support the community in various ways. At Christmas we organise a party every year for the residents and we do everything for it.

"Also, if someone elderly can't get to the shops or we haven't seen them for a while we deliver their shopping or give them a call just to check on them."

"It's something that we have always done and it's the whole team that does it."

Mr Bilbrough added: "We offer great customer service and you have to give them something different for them to come to your store."

AGAINST EXTREMISM: Sara and Sabiha, inset, want to promote the voices of Muslim women in society

Making a united stand on terror

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

WOMEN from across the town attended an event this week about the role they can play in fighting extremist groups.

The workshop was part of a nationwide series of #MakingAStand events run by counter-extremism group Inspire, which is committed to 'championing the importance of Muslim women's voices in local society and public life'.

Sara Khan, director of Inspire, said society had to 'make a stand' against the lure of ISIS to young people.

Sabiha Iqbal, a Luton woman who was at the event on Wednesday, said the workshop had shown her what 'females can do to make a stand against what is happening today in the world'.

She said: "It's about making a stand not just against extremism in the world but standing for promoting cultural values, core values that British people should hold."

"It's about making sure that young people out there understand what these values are about because if they can understand them, and if you can make a stand for those good values, then hopefully it will encourage a better environment and more harmony."

Ms Khan added: "We all agree everyone has a role to play - the government, police, schools - but we as Muslims living in this country have a role to play in these communities because we're losing our kids."

"Some of our kids are leaving this country to join ISIS and we absolutely have to make a stand on that."

CAMPAIGN TRAIL:
Attig Malik is running as an independent in May's General Election

Attig begins bid to become an MP

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LAWYER aims to 'throw a spanner in the works' come May, as he kicks off his campaign to become the new MP for Luton South, taking on Labour incumbent Gavin Shuker.

Attig Malik, best known for his appearance on Channel 4's 24 Hours in Police Custody, is running as an independent candidate.

He said: "I'm very involved in Luton 4 Justice and will be calling for more transparency in both the police and IPCC."

"However, my roots in law are as a trade union lawyer and I think the cuts our emergency services are facing are unacceptable. Further cuts are going to risk lives."

On why he feels he's the right man for the job, Mr Malik said: "I feel like I'm the opposite of most politicians, as the things I'm promising I'm already working to achieve in Luton and becoming an MP will simply give me a bigger platform to get the message across."

"I am proud and passionate about my roots. In both my working and personal life I have made a positive impact to the community and should I be elected I will continue to grow upon these foundations."

Police want 'security risk' tribute removed

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MEMORIAL left to a man who died after being detained in police custody is to be removed because it has been dubbed a 'security risk'.

Bedfordshire Police wants to take away tributes left to Leon Briggs outside Luton Police Station in Buxton Road following a review.

The force said the study was done across all of its estate following the increased threat to police officers and the resulting report found the tributes presented a risk.

A spokesman for the police said the conclusions of the report will now be sent to the executive for decisions around what, when, and how the recommendations can be implemented.

Leon, 39, of Ashburnham Road, Luton, died after being detained by police on November 4, 2013.

An inquiry into his death by the Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) is on-going.

In an email sent to Leon's family last weekend,

MEMORIES: Tributes to Leon have been left at the police station inspector Hob Hoque said: 'I totally understand the memorial is not at the forefront of your minds with everything else going on. Supt Upex, who is Divisional Commander for Luton, is also responsible for station security.'

'Recently station security has been reviewed by experts and it's become apparent the over-grown memorial poses a security risk and needs to be removed.'

Responding to the email, a

Justice 4 Leon Briggs (J4L) spokesman said the decision was 'shocking, disappointing and curious'.

Supporters of J4L left messages on Facebook criticising the move.

Annie Mullane said: "If they intend to remove - then they need to replace it with something rather than nothing. Just not good enough."

Zoe Bunce said: "If it's removed I for one will start replacing it x I'm sure many others will too x (sic)."

IF YOU suffer from low back pain and sciatica, you are one of over 20 million adults in the UK with this often crippling spinal condition.

Shooting, stabbing and burning pains from the low back, sometimes with additional pain through the buttocks and down the legs are all symptoms of a pinched nerve often called "sciatica".

In severe cases, it can lead to muscle wasting, numbness and constant tingling down to the tip of the toes. Left untreated, the intense pain can rapidly wear you down and drain the joy out of life.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in the treatment of sciatica and lower back pain have led to the development and huge success of Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

The excellent results of this treatment have been published in major medical journals. With success rates as high as 90% some back surgeons recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery.

In Bedfordshire, you can try Non-Surgical Re-constructive Spinal Care at the Atlas Wellness Centre – the office of low back pain and sciatica relief expert Peter Olsson.

Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists have helped over 3,000 patients find relief from their agonising back pain and sciatica.

Breakthrough relief for back pain and sciatica

Advertisement feature

According to Peter, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in Bedfordshire, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your low back pain and sciatica; and a unique programme for reconstructing the damaged area causing the pain; this means superior long-term results for most people."

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe and easy, most patients report an almost immediate relief from their pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge says, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg."

I couldn't work or do anything useful and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything.

My wife insisted I respond to one of these ads, I thought it would be a total waste of time, but I'm so glad she kept on at me.

Thank god I called your number, I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

Your invitation for a comprehensive consultation and examination to pinpoint the cause of your low back pain and sciatica...

Luton on Sunday has teamed up with the spine therapy specialists at Atlas Wellness Centre, to help readers find relief from their persistent back and sciatic pain.

All you have to do to receive a thorough diagnostic examination with the most advanced technology in the world, a state of the art Health Risk Assessment and a comprehensive easy to understand report on your state of health is call 01234 340317.

Increase 'not enough'

IN an article in Carl Mungazi (LoS, 15.2.15), Councillor David Franks is critical of the ruling Labour party for again rejecting government money to freeze council tax.

I would like to remind councillor Franks this coalition government has deprived local authorities of millions of pounds and then offers a paltry sum that falls way short of what the council requires to provide the services it needs to and even the additional money raised by the 1.5 per cent increase will probably not be enough.

I would also like to remind Cllr Franks, in case it has slipped his mind, his party is part of the coalition and his leader reneged on his promises. Since this government brought in its austerity measures LBC has shed more than 500 jobs due to the cuts and they were not all by way of voluntary redundancy. So instead of Mr Franks and John Tucker whinging about having to pay a little bit more bear a thought for a family whose breadwinner was among those and might now be struggling to get by on benefits.

But then from their past gripes they come across as selfish people. Perhaps they have never had to struggle in their life.

Grass not always greener

IN my job, I get to meet all types of people

'Double whammy' of tax hikes

I RARELY agree with anything that David Cameron says, but I do find myself sharing his views about the outrageous proposal by Olly Martins, the PCC, to inflict a 16 per cent increase in the police precept on Bedfordshire's council-tax payers as reported in this paper last weekend.

Here in Luton, we already face an unnecessary further rise in our council tax, thanks to the dim-witted Labour council's refusal to accept a government grant, so we now have the prospect of a double whammy, with the Labour PCC asking us to vote in a referendum on May 7 for a significant and unnecessary extra increase to the police budget. As your separate report makes clear, Olly Martins' referendum is going to cost hundreds of thousands of pounds whatever the outcome - and when he loses the vote, he has declared that he is going to cling to his job, instead of doing the decent thing and resigning.

Olly Martins was elected PCC in 2012 by a very small minority of Bedfordshire's registered electors, the majority of whom unfortunately stayed at home and didn't bother to vote. Well, let's hope they don't make the same mistake in May. Olly Martins has shown himself, since his appointment, to be ineffective, an embarrassment to Bedfordshire, and a waste of public money. The next government should have the courage to admit that the system of political PCCs has been a costly mistake (think of the former Labour PCC for South Yorkshire, who resigned over his mishandling of the Rotherham sex scandal, or think of John 'Two-Jags' Prescott as the Labour PCC candidate in Humberside!) and should take steps to get rid of them. Let's vote NO on May 7, and send a clear message to Mr Martins that we have had enough of his costly antics.

from different nationalities. The other day I met a young man from Romania.

He said that he was sorry, his English was not too good. #

I asked him what he was doing in this country. He said there was nothing for him in Romania. I presumed he meant no jobs. It is very sad that he can't find work in his own country.

It was clear to me that he was a polite, hard working, intelligent person. It is Romania's loss and our gain.

I warned him of the British way of life: it looks good on the surface, but look under the carpet, and you will see the dirt.

The government take most of our earnings, in the many taxations that they impose on us. We are all in debt up to our eyeballs.

The grass isn't always greener on the other side.

Better late than dead

REGARDING your article about M1 collisions in last week's newspaper.

In 2014 I raised the issue of the use of the hard shoulder with the Department for Transport.

I can't recall exactly what the reply said but at various times you will see digital sign boards over motorways telling people to use the hard shoulder due to 'congestion ahead'.

However all too often, there is no real congestion; traffic flows freely but unthinking drivers still carry on using the hard shoulder.

This is a cheap and easy way of creating an extra lane at a moments notice.

Being late due to congestion is better than being dead because you had no place to pull over.

PAVING THE WAY: Luton Borough Council has turned part of the town centre into a shared open space

Finishing line beckons for Guildford Street work

WORK to turn one of the busiest roads in the town centre into a pedestrian area is entering its final phase.

Luton Borough Council has turned part of Guildford Street into an open space with granite paving as part of its 'Town Centre Transport Scheme', which it says will 'improve one of the busiest pedestrian approaches to the town centre'.

During the works the one-way section of Bute Street that runs parallel to the car park was turned into a two-way system, with a new mini-roundabout built at the junction of Church Street with John Street. Residents have been commenting on the works on Facebook.

Paul Hindhaugh said: "Looks better than it did," while Tony McLaughlin said: "Needs a Victorian pub with outside seating with umbrellas, good food and drink."

"Might give it character, please no more fried chicken joints."

However, some residents have been critical about the works.

Barry Costelloe added: "What was the point of that? And how much did it cost the taxpayers of Luton?"

InterviewLuton

HOW do you get over persistent injury problems that stop you from playing your chosen sport at the very highest level?

You move to another sport, of course! Well, you do if you are Manny Muhammad.

Manny is a professional boxer and fitness trainer who played college basketball in the United States but had his dream of making the NBA cut short by persistent injuries.

He was born in the UK but moved to the US when he was only a few months old and grew up in Maryland, Baltimore, with his five sisters and four brothers.

Growing up, Manny said sport was his 'oxygen' and reason for living. His mother's job as a jewellery trader (his father a businessman) meant the family travelled a lot and Manny missed a lot of his schooling.

But despite all that, he made sure he didn't miss out on his love in life.

He says: "When I was a kid, all I did was sports. I hardly paid attention at school.

"All I did was track and field, American football, basketball, and boxing - my life revolved around sports."

What sport did he enjoy the most? "I actually never chose one sport," he says. "I always was involved in multiple activities.

"One of my favourite athletes of all time was a multi-sport player. His name is Deion Sanders. And another one is Bo Jackson. They both played baseball and American football."

Manny says he felt he was talented enough to do more than one sport at a time so he played American football, basketball, football and athletics.

In 2000 he settled on basketball and played for Albany State University, where he hoped to be drafted into the NBA.

But persistent injuries to his left knee severely hindered his progress and he failed to get picked by any team, including the Miami Dolphins NFL team for whom he tried out in 2004.

During one of his rehabilitation periods he decided to leave the States and try his luck in Europe.

At the time he was a personal trainer in Florida but he says he felt the need to give basketball another try.

Manny managed to secure a contract at an Italian team but also tried to get deals in Croatia, Serbia and Turkey.

Eventually, he ended up in London where he had the chance to play in the British Basketball League, but he turned it down because he became frustrated with his injuries preventing him from reaching his true potential.

How did he deal with his setbacks?

"Oh, man. I didn't deal with it very well, to be honest," he says. "But eventually you get over things and you have to move on. I had a lot of advice from my mom."

"She said 'make the best of your youth, you're still young, there are other things you could do in life."

"Don't dwell on the fact that you can't play basketball at a high level, some people don't even reach the level you reached." So I had to move on from that."

It was at this time Manny switched to boxing, a sport he had enjoyed from the age of 11.

He went to Graham Earl's House of Champions to maintain his fitness but ended up being offered a contract after beating a couple of professionals he fought in the ring.

Since then he has moved to Trad TKO Boxing Gym in Luton, fought and won three fights, and has set his sights on becoming a title holder. He has also set up a personal training business and an exercise machine design company.

What are his thoughts on the local boxing scene?

Manny says: "I think Luton is a boxing town. I think there's some young talent here. You've got Jordan Reynolds, who's doing good things; Michael Devine; Kayamba Prosper and Marco Stephenson, so we've got some professional boxers who are doing alright."

What has he learnt from his journey so far?

"What I've learnt from my life so far is never take anything for granted, because I remember when I was that young, upcoming superstar. I thought I had everything made, and boom - that one injury changed my life," he says. "It turned my life upside down. But I recovered from that."

"Another thing is to always be grateful for whatever situation you find yourself in."

"I hear a lot of people complaining but if they knew how difficult it was in some other places they would thank God that they were living in Luton."

"So, always be grateful - you don't know what can happen tomorrow. Like you were just asking, could Luton be my base? But who knows what could happen tomorrow? I'm just thankful that I'm alive and healthy, you know?"

"Believe me, I train a lot of people and if you see just how unhealthy some people really are, you would thank God for your health."

"I'm just very grateful at the moment."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

ADVERTISEMENT

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows.

The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

"The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

'Job not yet done' on teen pregnancy rate

BY JENNA HUTBER
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

A LEADING teenage pregnancy researcher from the University of Bedfordshire has warned against 'resting on our laurels', following statistics showing teen pregnancies are at a record low.

Statistics released by the Office of National Statistics this week revealed the rate of under-18 pregnancies has decreased by 48 per cent since 1998.

In 2013, 24.3 in 1000 girls under 18 became pregnant, the lowest rate on record.

Regional statistics for teenagers under the age of 16 in Luton who fell pregnant during in 2013 were just below the national average.

In neighbouring Bedford, 3.8 girls in 1,000 conceived compared with 1.4 in Harrow and 10.9 in Southampton.

Alison Hadley, who led Labour's teenage pregnancy strategy, said: "We must continue to provide the right access to facilities and information. The job is not yet done."

She said most local authorities 'care deeply about this cause and provide practical facilities' but others offer only a self-referral system. Ms Hadley, who works at Uni of Beds, also said: "We have seen a remarkable reduction in the number of teenage pregnancies since the implementation of a government strategy. These are real long term changes."

She said the dramatic decrease in under-age pregnancies is due to improved sex education at schools and access to contraception as well as one-to-one counselling services.

"Prevention is so important but young women also need unbiased counselling to make an informed choice about their pregnancy without pressure from parents and partners."

Although more 16 year olds have chosen to terminate pregnancies compared with last year, fewer girls aged under 14 chose abortion.

Ms Hadley said: "Some of the youngest girls who are pregnant do not realise they are pregnant - girls' periods are often erratic anyway at that age. A lot of young girls are afraid to tell their parents. By the time they are found to be pregnant it is too late to terminate."

"It is really, really important for young girls not to put off letting someone know if they think they are pregnant."

GOING, GOING, GONE: The desk has been sold on eBay

Hatters auction Pleat's old desk

LUTON Town have sold a piece of club history on eBay for £521.

The Hatters put an executive desk up for auction on the website after it became surplus to requirements at Kenilworth Road.

First used by ex-Hatters boss David Pleat in the 1970s, the desk has witnessed the signings of Luton legends like Ricky Hill, Brian Stein and Mick Harford.

Current manager John Still used the L-shaped desk most recently.

Smoking residents above UK average

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

ONE in five adults continue to smoke in Luton - above the national average of 18 per cent.

The British Heart Foundation (BHF) has released the information and urged people in the town to visit their local stop smoking services ahead of No Smoking Day on March 11.

Studies have found that smokers are four times more likely to succeed in quitting with help from NHS stop smoking services than if they go it alone.

Dr Mike Knapton, associate medical director at the BHF, said: "Smoking increases the risk of coronary heart disease, stroke and a variety of cancers."

"The good news is that stopping smoking is the single best thing you can do for your heart health and the risk to your overall health decreases significantly soon after you stop." While the damage smoking does to physical health is well-known, there is little known about the impact it has on those closest to smokers.

A new survey for No Smoking Day was commissioned to shine a light on the devastating impact smoking has on people's relationships.

Dr Knapton added: "Passive smoke is a cause of short and long-term illness in others and is particularly harmful to children."

Singer Cerys to celebrate Dylan in this fest of fun

FESTIVAL

WORDFEST 2015

Venues across Luton

Starting today

A DIVERSE mixture of performers all come together under one banner this month, as Luton's WordFest 2015 kicks off today.

Featuring rappers, poets, films, comedy and talks, this festival will have something for everyone as it takes over Luton's venues for almost the whole month.

The aim of the festival is to bring words and stories to life through a number of genres.

Perhaps the most famous name who will be in Luton this month is Catatonia singer Cerys Matthews (pictured).

She will be joined by Jeff Towns, chairman of the Dylan Thomas society, as they discuss the work of the famous Welsh poet at Luton Library Theatre on March 14.

They will speak of Dylan's humour, sense of wonder, vices and of course about the poetry which made him famous, along with how he inspired people both inside and outside his field.

You'll hear the influence he had on beat poets and musicians, to princes and presidents.

Cerys has recently released an album setting some of Thomas' famous works to music, so expect this to be a music filled event, alongside the poetry.

On March 18 and 19 a group which is based around the unlikely pairing of two influential literary movements will take over the UK Centre for Carnival Arts,

The Hip-hop Shakespeare Company bring their unique combination to Luton, featuring music, theatre and discussion. Founded in 2008 by MOBO award-winning hip hop artist Akala, The Hip-hop Shakespeare Company (THSC) is a music theatre production company that explores the social, cultural and linguistic parallels between the works of William Shakespeare and that of modern day rappers.

It was launched in 2009 with the support and encouragement of Sir Ian McKellen.

THSC delivers bespoke education programmes offering young people a different view of the arts and ultimately, themselves.

THSC also produce interactive live music events/theatre productions showcasing the work of up and coming young talent who share the stage with established artists and actors.

Previous collaborators include Ed Sheeran, Bashy and Polarbear, who will also be performing as part of WordFest.

Polarbear, also known as Steve Camden off the stage, is a storyteller for the 21st century.

His routine, a combination of stand-up comedy, poetry and rapping, forms a unique narrative between the three.

Polarbear will be bringing his unique performance to the Hat Factory stage on March 10.

Aside from this, he has led a number of spoken word classes across the world, from London to Malaysia.

On the comedy side of things, two comics who have made appearances on BBC panel shows will be playing at the library as part of the festival.

lutonculture.com

Gina Yashere, of Mock The Week fame, and Andrew O'Neill will be bringing two very different stand up routines.

Andrew will perform on Thursday, while Gina will take to the stage on Saturday.

There are also a number of workshops to help you gain the confidence to get you to try something new, or something you've always wanted to do but never got round to it.

Workshops include how to get your book published and tips on songwriting.

There are also a number of events from local people, including Luton Town FC historian Roger Walsh giving a talk about the history of the football club on March 22 at Luton Central Library. It is also a chance for fans to talk about their experiences following the Hatters.

Another event aimed at promoting local talent is a number of spoken word artists and poets performing at the Petite Café on Thursday.

And there are various children's events taking place, including theatre and readings.

The festival aims to educate and entertain and a large number of the activities are either free or cost less than £5.

WHAT'S ON

CHLOE HANSLIP AND DANNY DRIVER

Luton Library Theatre
Monday, March 9

TWO of the country's top chamber musicians are coming back to Luton for the second of four programmes which sees the works of Beethoven set alongside works by contemporary British composers.

The concert starts off with a sonata by Frederick Delius and ends with Ludwig van Beethoven's Sonata op 47 Kreutzer.

Sandwiched between the two are works from Hugh Wood, James MacMillan and world premieres of compositions from British music students.

The performers (pictured right) are two of the UK's top classical musicians, in violinist Chloe Hanslip and pianist Danny Driver.

Chloe first started grabbing attention back in 2002 when, aged just 15, she made her BBC Proms debut. Just a year later she was performing in her first Concerto in the United States.

That same year, she also won Best Young British Classical Performer at the Classical BRITS.

Danny is known as one of the premier solo pianists in the country. Recently he has performed with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and the BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra.

He is a graduate of Cambridge University and the Royal Academy of Music.

Tickets are £15 for adults, £8 for concessions and free for those under 18 in full time education.

To book, call 01582 787100.

Legends are ready to rock

MUSIC

CLASSIC LEGENDS OF ROCK AND FOLK

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Friday, March 6

SOME of classic rock's biggest names will be coming to Dunstable later this week.

Carl Palmer, one of the world's most revered drummers, will be performing the music of Emerson, Lake and Palmer (ELP) with his band.

Named as one of the greatest drummers of all time by the readers of Rolling Stone, he is a legend in every sense of the word.

On his new project, Mr Palmer said: "When ELP were together we used no guitars just synthesizers and now I can use guitars which is much more a symbol of rock 'n' roll. "I can express the music of ELP to a new generation and make it completely different."

The band, which formed in 1970, sold more than 40 million albums across the world and were one of the biggest groups of the early 1970s, when progressive rock was at its peak.

As well as drumming with The Crazy World of Arthur Brown, Atomic Rooster and Asia.

Joining him is Martin Turner, who was singer, bassist and songwriter for Wishbone Ash.

The band enjoyed huge success with millions of album sales performing to packed stadiums and concert halls across the world.

Mark and his band will play a mixture of classic Wishbone Ash songs, along with new material.

The Strawbs, led by Dave Cousins, are still going with their original line up.

Cousins is joined by lead guitarist Dave Lambert and the versatile Chas Cronk who together formed the front-line of the classic 1970's line-up of the band.

As the Strawbs move into their fifth decade of music making it is still difficult to categorise the unique sound that has made them Britain's most successful progressive folk band.

To book tickets or for more information visit grove theatre.co.uk.

You can also call the box office on 01582 602080.

Tickets cost £23.50.

Connells

PRESS RELEASE

FEBRUARY 2015

Window of opportunity for those looking to move home, says Connells

With a 10% rise in people requesting to have their property valued this January compared to last year, Connells in Luton is advising both sellers and buyers that now is a brilliant time to start thinking about your property search.

With an uplift in people looking to sell their property and demand from buyers continuing unabated, Connells is seeing a high level of activity from home movers and first time buyers, as they look to secure their dream home whilst general market conditions are strong.

We've seen a rise in interest from potential sellers who are keen to have their property valued, which indicates more properties coming onto the market in the near future," says Branch Manager, Lee Clark.

"This is fantastic news for buyers locally who are still heavily outweighing the supply of homes available. With mortgage rates currently low, competitive mortgage products and attractive schemes such as Help to Buy available, now presents a window of opportunity for both buyers and sellers to lock down their next property move," Lee continues.

As the property market continues to perform buoyantly Connells are advising homeowners thinking of selling, to get the ball rolling now: "Property prices are rising steadily and buyer's appetite is still strong," says Lee. "With plenty of people keen to secure a property in the early half of the year, now is a great time to explore your options and get moved."

If you have a property to sell and would like to book a free market appraisal with Connells, please contact the branch on 01582 450999 or email: Luton@connells.co.uk

IMPREZA REBOOTED

Subaru's most iconic badge is back, but don't get too excited. In this case, it's attached to the rounded rump of the decidedly modest Impreza 1.6i RC, a car that delivers the trademark all-wheel drive and flat-four engine. It also delivers 147g/km and a mere 114PS, which doesn't sound quite so impressive - until you consider that this is that rarest of things, a 4WD family hatchback. And one priced at less than you'd have to find for an equivalently powered and specified Focus or Astra - you'll pay from around £17,500 and get plenty of kit too. Can this modern Impreza cut it?

The front suspension is a fairly standard strut setup, while double wishbone rear suspension offers more tuneability than the usual cheap torsion beam rear ends that many cars in this class opt for. The symmetrical all-wheel drive system does offer improved traction, especially on low grip surfaces such as wet tarmac or snow. To get the most out of the all-wheel drive system, you ought to invest in a set of winter tyres and get used to performing spring and autumn swaps for summer rubber.

There's nothing particularly exciting about the Impreza's silhouette, as this car has been on sale in Japan and the US for a good couple of years already. Exchange rates have prevented it going on sale in Europe, as the strength of the Yen would have pushed prices prohibitively high. It's here now, thanks to a softening of the Japanese currency but I doubt this Impreza is going to draw too much attention to itself. The shape is a development of the rather dumpy Impreza hatch and while it is undoubtedly sleeker than before, it's still no head turner. In fact, it looks much like an XV that's been treated to a set of lowering springs. That's no surprise, as the XV was marketed in Japan as the Impreza XV, so if you've driven an XV, the interior isn't going to come as a great surprise.

This car's buying proposition will depend on your perspective. Before this Impreza arrived, those wanting or needing all-wheel drive in a family-sized car and not able to spend well over £20,000 on the cheapest 4WD Crossovers or compact SUVs were limited to the crudity of SsangYong Korandos and Dacia Dusters. This Subaru is a much more palatable option, priced at less than you'd pay for a much less well specified Astra or Focus. Look at it that way and there's not much not to like.

The issue will come if Subaru dealers try to pitch this car to customers who simply don't care about 4WD. These people will perhaps question this Impreza's higher running costs and less cutting edge driving dynamics - though they'll certainly like the amount of equipment that comes as standard. In other words, it'll be horses for courses. Which, in all likelihood, will make this model a rare sight on our roads. But for its target clientele, a welcome one.

JUMPING FOR JOY: Jayden Stockley celebrates opening the scoring for Luton.

Town twist the knife

LEAGUE TWO
LUTON TOWN
ACCRINGTON STANLEY

2

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

IF IT hadn't been for bad luck this calendar year, Luton would have no luck at all – but that may just have changed against Accrington Stanley.

The Hatters were decidedly off-the-boil and second best until Jayden Stockley headed his second goal in as many games five minutes before half time. And they weren't that convincing in the second period, but they got the job done.

Luke Guttridge's third of the campaign ensured Town put to bed a two-game losing run, while results elsewhere all went their way for the first time in a very long time indeed, with defeats for Burton and Shrewsbury and just a draw for Wycombe. And suddenly their see-saw flirtation with automatic promotion appears a little rosier with the gap between them and Wanderers now just two points.

"We're looking upwards, we're not looking below us anymore," said Stockley, adding: "We've got our eyes firmly set on promotion. "Those results; we need teams to do us favours so we can creep back into that top three and hopefully remain there."

On a day of fortune, even the controversy over striker Mark Cullen proved to be more of a storm in a teacup than full blown drama when the club, prior to kick-off, posted a YouTube video of the top scorer, effectively apologising for seven days of transfer speculation in which the Kenilworth Road exit door opened wide.

Having also reaffirmed his commitment to Town, his introduction on 82 minutes drew mostly applause, as it did during the pre-match warm-up. Cullen almost scored twice in the dying minutes – the second a stunning drive from distance – but, for the most part, it seems that all is forgiven.

All in all, despite a performance that was more Post Office than box office, it was one of those football days where everything just went well. In the end, at least.

For 35 minutes Luton marked manager John Still's two-year anniversary with a display more akin to that of the 64-year-old's desperate first day in charge at Braintree when he sat in the stands to see his new side sink to their lowest point in the non-league.

Of course, events, as history happily shows, took an upward trajectory from there, as they did against Accrington once Elliot Lee – handed his home debut after last week's instant goalscoring bow – managed Town's first effort on target. His header, which was clawed away by visiting keeper Scott Davies, proved a spark of sorts.

Luton beaten by Ruislip and Dunstablians slip up

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON RFC drop a league place in London One North this weekend following a 31-14 home defeat to Ruislip on Irish Day at Newlands Road.

"We competed well in the second half," said Luton's skills and attack coach Chris Parr.

"We were held up over the line, and could have finished slightly better on another occasion, so it could have ended differently on another day."

Trailing 3-0 at the turn around, Luton fell further behind soon after the restart through a converted try by Ruislip, and although Chris Davis reduced the deficit with a try minutes later, which was converted by Tom Mahendren, Ruislip crossed three times to kill the game off at 31-7. A late try from Mahendren, to which he added a drop-kicked conversion, proved to be a mere consolation.

The chance of a derby between Dunstablians and Stockwood Park next season is looking more likely following Dees' 11-7 home defeat to Oadby on the pitch and one on the bench – we had one total."

Wyggestonians in Midlands Two East South yesterday.

The defeat is Dees' 14th of the season and they now sit eight points from safety with four games to play.

In Midlands Three East South Stockwood Park were forced to concede their league game to Rushden & Higham as they had a shortage of regular first team front row players.

"We've a horrendous injury list throughout the club," said President John Humphries.

"We needed two props on the pitch and one on the bench – we had one total."

on Stanley to cut the gap

Accrington Stanley? Who are they? That was the famous tag line of a television milk commercial, which those of a certain vintage will recall (for everyone else there's the internet).

It confirmed, in mainstream consciousness, the Lancashire side's status as football's minnows, but at Kenilworth Road they were convincingly disguised as the better side, while the score remained unblemished.

Elliot Justham kept his place in the Town goal to make his home Football League debut and was called quickly into action to deny Terry Gornell after a flick-on put the forward clean through on goal, while Fraser Franks, faced with the imminent return from suspension of captain Steve McNulty on Tuesday at

STANLEY BEATEN: Alex Lawless dodges a tackle

Bury, backheeled Josh Windass' follow-up off the line.

Accrington had more about them in the final third and Luke Wilkinson, back in the side after serving his suspension, was called upon to hack another dangerous ball clear.

But then, against the run of play, Lee saw a header saved and three minutes later his strike partner had put Town ahead.

Stockley, who had been one of the attackers that had hauled the Hatters up by their bootstraps at Wimbledon, towered high at the back post from Luke Guttridge's corner, thumping a header in the top corner – his third goal in his last six outings and first on home soil. It clearly meant a lot to the young Bournemouth loanee.

Lee had the chance, early in the second half, to score but was bundled over just as he was about to pull the trigger.

Referee Lee Collins waved away the penalty appeals and would later book the West Ham loan man for a perfectly legal tackle, but that's just what the exasperated Hatters have come to expect from officials in this division.

Yet, having seen a goal disallowed for offside minutes earlier, the Hammers loan ace would be instrumental in Luton's second. He wriggled free in the box, to square unselfishly to Guttridge. The playmaker could not miss, notching his first strike since the FA Cup worldie against Newport in November.

Jake Howells could have added a third yet conspired to miss the target, albeit under a challenge, after Cameron McGeehan's cross.

But in the end there was no panic, no drama, just a comfortable conclusion to a very good day indeed.

Luton: Justham, Franks, Smith, Howells, Griffiths, Guttridge, Harriman, Stockley (Cullen, 82), Wilkinson, Lee (Lawless, 72), McGeehan. Unused subs: Drury, Parry, Whalley, Oduwa, King. Accrington: Davies, Joyce, Winnard (Crooks, 45), Windass, Gornell, Naismith (Maguire, 82), Mingoia, Barry (McCartan, 69), Proctor, Atkinson, Conneely.

Post Croft era starts in poor fashion as Town are big losers

FOOTBALL

BY NICK SMITH

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

THE post-Croft era for Dunstable Town got off to the worst possible start as they were hammered 4-0 by Frome Town in the Southern Premier League yesterday.

Darren Croft resigned as the Blues' manager on Wednesday, following a 2-1 defeat to the league's basement club Banbury United.

Tony Fontanelle took charge as caretaker manager until the end of the season, with yesterday's drubbing his first game in charge. The visitors took the lead after just five minutes, when Matt Smith's deflected shot crept over the line.

With 21 minutes gone, they doubled their lead.

Smith fired the ball into the box and Mark Cooper got on the end of it at the near post to make it 2-0.

It could have got worse just before the break, with Lewis Haldane's curled shot going just over with 37 minutes played.

After the restart, Frome started where they left off and piled the misery on Dunstable.

With 52 minutes gone, Cooper found himself furthest forward and latched onto a ball upfield.

Bearing down on goal, he made no mistake as he coolly made it 3-0.

Five minutes later, any hope of a comeback was wiped out as Smith fired home for his second.

Town are 12th in the table after the drubbing.

In the Southern League Division One Central, Barton Rovers were beaten 4-2 at Beaconsfield SYCOB.

Rhys Hoenes opened the scoring for Barton in the 36th minute, as the visitors took a 1-0 lead at the break.

Beaconsfield then scored four unanswered second half goals as they dominated the visitors.

Kofi Lockhart-Adams equalised from the penalty spot after 49 minutes and Ollie Jones made it 2-1 on the hour mark.

Ronnie Walker scored the third for Beaconsfield before Jones added extra gloss to the scoreline with his second of the afternoon four minutes from time.

Tuki Tayali netted a late consolation for Rovers who are seventh and four points adrift of the play-off places after the defeat.

In the Spartan South Midlands Premier Division, AFC Dunstable drew 1-1 with Hertford Town.

Crawley Green's game with Buckingham Athletic was postponed in Division One, as was The 61 FC's trip to Milton Keynes to face Willen in Division Two.

Cullen comes in from the cold to remain a Hatter

ON TARGET: Luke Guttridge celebrates his goal against Accrington yesterday.
Picture: Gareth Owen

HATTERS

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

LUKE Guttridge has hailed the positive resolution of Mark Cullen's turbulent and controversial week after it was confirmed that the striker would remain at Luton Town.

The Hatters' top goalscorer was dropped for last weekend's 3-2 defeat at AFC Wimbledon amid transfer speculation linking him to Peterborough.

An exit looked on the cards, but Posh saw their boss Darren Ferguson sacked last Saturday after losing to MK Dons and – without naming the suitors – Luton ended negotiations in the week when their valuation was not met.

Then, prior to Town's 2-0 League Two win over Accrington Stanley yesterday, the club posted a YouTube video where the forward apologised for any unrest caused and confirmed he wants to help Luton win promotion this season.

Cullen was introduced as an 82nd minute substitute and received a good reception from the Kenilworth Road faithful, even coming close to a goal on two occasions.

Speaking about the end to the speculation, Guttridge, who netted the second goal, said: "That's brilliant for Cully, the club, the manager. It makes it easier that they've come out and made a quick statement.

"As players, we haven't really known too much about it. Cully has not been a problem. Whatever has happened, has happened, and I'm delighted that he's come on.

"Whatever has been said I'm just delighted that the fans took it the right way.

"They could have booed him if they wanted but they didn't. They gave him a big cheer and hopefully that will spur him on. He's our top goalscorer and if he gets some more goals and also helps us get promoted this season, that's brilliant."

Boss John Still added: "It's a difficult one because I made it quite clear at the time – I don't want anyone that doesn't want to play for Luton.

"In discussions with Mark, he was looking at what was possible for him. "Everyone has to be sensible because people make mistakes."

The 64-year-old reiterated what he said in the week; that the club never made Cullen available for transfer while, after further discussions with him, the hitman had made it clear that he had not asked to leave the club at any point.

Still said: "When it's put like that, it's a little bit different and we saw in training how committed he has been. He really has, so we decided to include him."
